SALUTATIONS AGAIN, THE EDITER

Here it is another issue of the zine. It took me longer this time to get it all put together, I got involved with too many things. My time is very limited these days as I figure many of my readers as well. This issue has more pictures in it. As you can tell the rotten typing is the same. 3:00 in the morning is no time to be particular about typo"s. Michelle Sanderson is my interviewee this issue, we did the interview quit a while ago, I hope her mind hasent changed any. My spelling hasent changed any either. Ide like to thank the persons who helped me put this issue together. Thanks DAD for the money...my brother Jason and his friend John (J.R.) for submitting and stapling, Tash and Claire for submitting pictures that I havent got yet, Tod Swank for putting up with all my traveling and my big mouth, all the people who gave me good respons from the last issue, sorry about the big dick sticker moms and dads, people who wrote me letters, sorry I couldnt put then all in, and all the guys in this issues centerfold. I got to hand it to the guys, they make good models, although they didnt know it. I also wanted to thank Bonnie for finally writting me, Hi Bonnie It took me quit a while getting a hold of you. Oh and thanks to all the locals at Mel Mar, they have been the best in putting up with all my shit, you know stupid questions, taking anonymous picturs. God my spelling is bad. So I hope you all enjoy this one, read on. Numbers to you all. Alex, thanks for the coin...

LETTERS, LETTERS, LETTERS

Dear Ladies skateworld zine, I started skating in June of 85, so I am only a beginner. I live in Encinitas, but I go to Del Mar and observe all the skaters at the park. I know alot of the pro and AM skaters and I really respect their different styles.
I ride a G & S board and mainly skate the streets I want to learn to skate pools, if I can get the right ~~teacher~~ ~~teacher~~ (sorry I cant type) teacher.
I think it's really hot that you guy's have started a Ladies mag!! Since I am a local at Del Mar I would be stoked to help you out with any photos or interviews with our girls tearing it up!! Im going to keep on practicing, and if your interested in help with your mag, let me know. Keep up with the great work!!!
Melissa C.

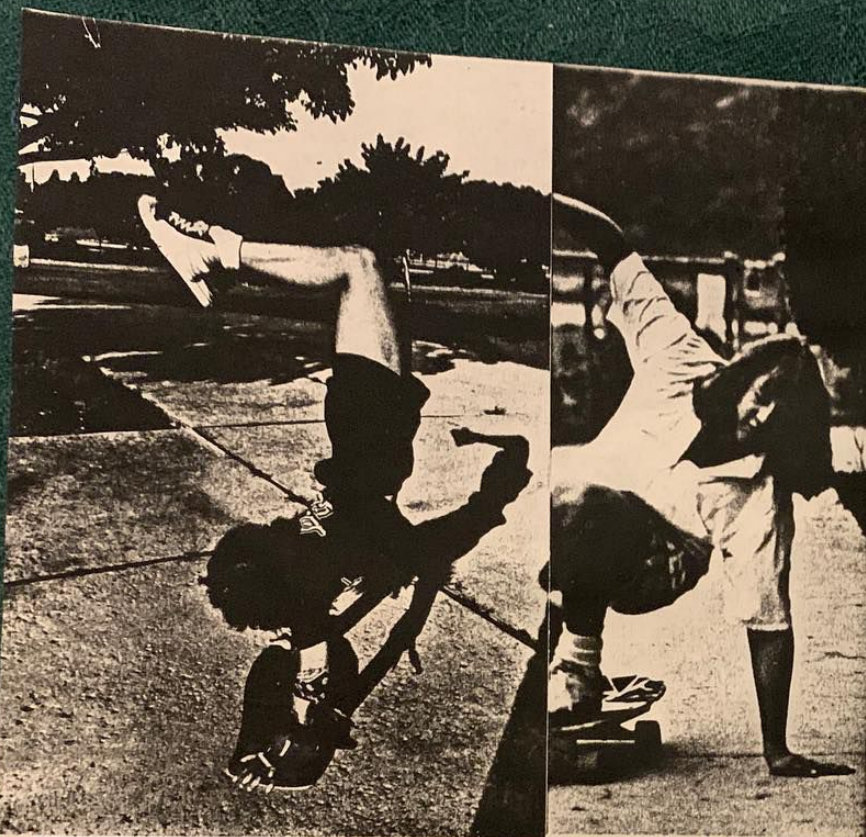

THANKS FOR THE INSPIRING LETTER AND YES I COULD USE SOME PHOTOS AND LOCAL SCENE WRITE UPS. SEND WHATEVER YOU CAN IN TO US. WE APPRECIATE ANYTHING WE CAN GET. THANKS AGAIN.

Dear Ladies skateworld zine, Did you know that one hour of rad skating can cost you up to 500 calories? Did you slao know that there are good calories and empty calories? The point I am trying to make is that if you're burning a lot of calories in skating-you should make your calories count for you. Surgars such as candy t winkies...ect. are good for quick energy, but are empty of other important nutrients needed for a balanced diet. So instead of reaching for those candy bars and snack cokes, reach for a glass of chocolate milk- or real fruit juice and a peanut butter and banana sandwich. Why? because milk, juice peanut butter and bananas not only have simple surgars (Carbohhydrates), but they have other nutrients like, Vitamins A, B complex, C and D, protien and potassium. In conclusion - if you're going to eat and skate - wasfe two birds with one stone. Get energy to Mangle and good calories for a darn good nutritional Angle !!!
ENJOY! Eileen Singer
